

ONSA's ILF Newsletter

July, 2002

Search and Rescue Organization and Planning Seminar

In a distinguished building of the Capital - Caracas - ONSA called for the Search and Rescue Organization and Planning Seminar, accompanied by personnel internationally specialized in this type of activities.

This Seminar started the cycle of Chats and Conferences, dedicated to form and to qualify the personnel related to Search and Rescue activities in our community.

More than thirty people attended the first Seminar, receiving their Certificate as participants. Every year, this activity will be carried out in different cities of the country, in order to take these Search and Rescue knowledge and practices nationwide.

OSM grant recognitions to ONSA's Members

The Maritime Rescue Organization of Puerto Cabello [OSM] condecorate the Secretary General of ONSA with the Order of the OSM, Silver Class, and the Representative of the Institutional Council with the Bar of Honor's. Strong friendship ties join these two organizations, dedicated to promote the safety of life at sea.

While ONSA is a nationwide association with almost five years in operations, the Maritime Rescue Organization of Puerto Cabello [OSM] have been running Search and Rescue operations for over 28 years.

A recognition Plate was given to CASMAR by the Coastal Safety Service of the Venezuelan National Guard

The operational arm of ONSA, the Support and Maritime Rescue Corps [CASMAR] received a Plate from the Coastal Safety Service of the Venezuelan National Guard, in response to the support given to the authorities in Search and Rescue missions.

This Plate was received by CASMAR Miranda which was the first Squadron to establish a relationship with this Service.